

Regional West

Rembrandt to Rodeo. Right here.

To give you just a taste of what Scottsbluff/Gering has to offer

We invite you to experience a place where...

...A night out on the town doesn't involve fighting bumper-to-bumper traffic or enduring long waits at your favorite restaurant.

...The whole family can enjoy live concerts and events at an amphitheater under the stars.

...Patrons can view original paintings by artists like Pablo Picasso, Salvador Dali, and Henri Matisse free of charge.

Dining

Enjoy cocktails on the Scotts Bluff Country Club deck overlooking the Scotts Bluff National Monument, followed by a leisurely chef-cooked meal in the Club's tranquil dining room. With a low initiation fee and reasonable monthly dues structure, a Country Club membership is an affordable option for fine dining in a friendly, welcoming atmosphere

Lovers of fine wine and beer can enjoy an evening with friends at The Tangled Tumbleweed Food & Wine Bar, Papa Moon Vineyard & Winery, or Flyover Brewing Company.

Scottsbluff is also home to over a dozen authentic Mexican restaurants, two of which were featured in a past issue of Gourmet magazine.

From small plates to prime rib, Scottsbluff-Gering offers something to tempt any palate.

Cultural Activities

The West Nebraska Arts Center is one of Nebraska’s premiere community based art organizations. Besides ongoing gallery exhibits, the center coordinates art education programs for adults and children, and visual arts camps and workshops.

The Valley Voices adult choral group has been entertaining local, national, and international audiences for decades and has performed at Carnegie Hall and throughout Europe. Valley Voices also offers a children’s choir to area youth. New voices are always welcome.

Theatre West Repertory offers multiple productions each summer and is housed at Western Nebraska Community College in Scottsbluff. Guest directors, designers, and actors from across the nation join talented local musicians, actors, choreographers, and singers for full-scale theatrical productions. From area youth taking part in summer productions with TOFY (Theater Opportunity for Youth) to performances from Broadway, national, and international actors, Theater West hosts a diverse range of cultural offerings.

Downtown Scottsbluff’s historic Midwest Theater provides an elegant venue for the presentation of film; live performances of music, theater, and art; adult and community education; and a space for community programs and receptions. Glam Oscar watch parties, live music, stand-up comedy, and more join a wide variety of current and classic movies sure to delight all ages.

Surrounded by ancient geologic rock formations, Gering’s Five Rocks Amphitheater plays host to a variety of musical groups and other open-air entertainment throughout the spring and summer months. Aficionados of rock, Christian, country, and the blues can enjoy concerts under the stars.
